

How to Turn Off Pop Up Blockers in Firefox and Microsoft Edge

A Quick Guide for UCSF Faculty, Staff, and Trainees at ZSFG

Step 1: Open the Tools menu (icon of three horizontal lines in top right of the browser window) and select Settings

The screenshot shows a Firefox browser window with the address bar displaying `https://zsfg.ucsf.edu/2022-sf-learning-modules-and-compliance-privacy-training`. The browser's address bar, tabs, and navigation icons are visible at the top. The website content includes the UCSF and ZSFG logos, a navigation menu with items like 'About', 'Research', 'Capital Projects', 'Resources', 'News', 'Newsletter', and 'ZSFG Artwork', and a search bar. The main heading reads '2022 SF Learning Modules and Compliance & Privacy Training Available Tuesday May 24, 2022' with a blue 'SF LEARNING LOGIN' button. Below this are two columns: 'SF Learning Dates' (UCSF Faculty, Staff, and Trainees at ZSFG Launch Date: Tuesday May 24, 2022) and 'Mandatory Training Requirement' (Training is mandatory for all DPH and UCSF faculty, staff and trainees who work at ZSFG or with DPH patients or data.). The browser's 'Tools' menu is open on the right side, with 'Settings' highlighted. Red arrows point to the 'Tools' menu icon and the 'Settings' option.

Step 2: Select the Privacy & Security panel
